- SIPRA Membership Form -

About SIPRA

SIPRA provides opportunities for its members to meet, share, network, socialize, and grow professionally through its planned meetings, CEU workshops, special projects, and member socials. SIPRA has been serving Park and Recreation Professionals in Southern Illinois since 1951!

SIPRA Membership Categories

- Professional Membership: open to individuals with a degree in leisure services, and/or employed by a leisure service delivery agency, and educators in the leisure services field.
- Board, Council, or Committee Membership: open to any elected or appointed members of park and recreation boards, councils, or committees.
- Retired Professional Membership: any person who has retired from the leisure service field and was a member in good standing at the time of retirement.
- Friend of SIPRA: any person interested in the leisure movement.
- Patron of SIPRA: any person or company/vendor who has an interest in the leisure movement and who wishes to contribute to the support of SIPRA.
- Student Membership: open to any student pursuing studies in the leisure sciences.

SIPRA Membership Dues

Individual membership dues are $15.00 for each individual membership category, except memberships for Students and Retired Professionals are free. Membership dues are due annually. Please submit your annual membership form and payment before or during the October SIPRA meeting.
